About this guide

This guide explains what you need to know about your Cambridge IGCSE German course and examinations. You should use this guide alongside the support of your teacher.

It will help you to:

- ✓ understand what skills you should develop by taking this Cambridge IGCSE course
- ✓ understand how you will be assessed
- ✓ understand what we are looking for in the answers you write
- ✓ plan your revision programme
- ✓ revise, by providing revision tips and an interactive revision checklist (Section 5).

Studying Cambridge IGCSE German will help you to develop the skills you will need:

- to understand and communicate in everyday situations in German
- to develop your own cultural awareness of Germany and other countries and communities where German is spoken
- to develop essential linguistic skills which will help you in your future studies or in employment.

Section 1: Syllabus content

Find out what topics you will be learning about. Your teacher can give you more detail.

Section 2: How you will be assessed

Find out

- how many examinations you will take
- how long each examination lasts
- what different question types the examination will contain
- how to approach each examination.

Section 3: What skills will be assessed

Find out what areas of knowledge, understanding and skills you will need to demonstrate throughout the course and in your examinations.

Section 4: Example candidate responses

Take a look at an example question and answer from a specimen examination paper. Find out:

- how to interpret the question
- how to avoid common mistakes
- how to improve your exam technique.

Section 5: Revision

Discover:

- ways to help you plan your revision
- some basic revision skills
- some 'top revision tips'
- a revision checklist for each topic.

Section 6: Useful websites

Find out about useful resources to help you study for your Cambridge IGCSE German course.

Section 1: Syllabus content – what you need to know about

---

This section gives you an outline of the syllabus subject content for this course.

Language skills

During your Cambridge IGCSE German course you will need to:

- develop your ability to communicate clearly and effectively when speaking and writing
- develop your ability to understand written and spoken texts
- learn how to use a wide range of vocabulary, correct grammar and spelling.

You can think of your Cambridge IGCSE German course as having four main areas of skills and understanding which will be tested at the end of your course.

- Listening
- Reading
- Speaking
- Writing

See Section 3 for more information about these four language skills which you will be developing while studying the topics listed below.

Topics for study

The content of what you will need to learn is organised in five broad topic areas (A–E) below. When you study these topics you will get an insight into the country and communities where German is spoken. You will also develop your skills of Listening, Reading, Speaking and Writing through the study of these topic areas.

Here are five main topic areas which you will study during your course:

A Everyday activities

B Personal and social life

C The world around us

D The world of work

E The international world

These topic areas may be studied in any order. Your teacher will decide when it is best to study each topic area. You may already have done some work on these topic areas before but these will be developed during your course and you will also meet new topic areas. These five main topic areas will be divided into several sub-topics by your teacher. The list below shows examples of possible sub-topics which your teacher may choose to focus on during the course.

A Everyday activities

- Time expressions
- Food and drink
- The human body and health
- Travel and transport

B Personal and social life

- Self, family and friends
- In the home
- Colours
- Clothes and accessories
- Leisure time

C The world around us

- People and places
- The natural world, the environment, the climate and the weather
- Communications and technology
- The built environment
- Measurements
- Materials

D The world of work

- Education
- Work

E The international world

- Countries, nationalities and languages
- Culture, customs, faiths and celebrations

Ask your teacher for more detail about the topic areas. You can also find more detail in the Revision checklists of this guide.

During your course you will have the opportunity to develop and apply a range of language skills in each of the above five main topic areas.

You will be expected to read and understand a variety of written and spoken texts taken from the above five main topic areas. When you read or hear a text you will need to show that you can understand the main ideas, opinions and attitudes. You will also be expected to select and extract details and occasionally work out the meaning of unknown words from familiar language you know in texts in the above topic areas.

You should be able to write on familiar, everyday topics and show you can speak the language by taking part in everyday conversations.

More details about language skills can be found in Section 3.

Vocabulary list

There is a list of vocabulary in the syllabus which covers the essential vocabulary for the five topic areas. During your course, you will need to learn vocabulary regularly as you meet new topics. This will make sure that you know the essential words and have a good foundation to acquire new vocabulary. You will already know some of the words on the Vocabulary list from your earlier study of German but others will be new. Your teacher will be aware of this list and will introduce new vocabulary as required when new topic areas are introduced. You will also need to learn other vocabulary in addition to this list.

The Vocabulary list can be found in the syllabus.

Grammar and structures

There is a list in the syllabus of grammar and structures which you will need to cover and can expect to meet in your Cambridge IGCSE assessments. This list covers, for example, which nouns, adjectives, adverbs, verbs (tenses) you will need to know. Your teacher will again be aware of this list and will introduce new structures as the course progresses.

Make sure that you always check the latest syllabus, which is available at www.cambridgeinternational.org

Section 2: How you will be assessed

You will be assessed at the end of the course using four compulsory components (examinations):

- Paper 1 Listening
- Paper 2 Reading
- Paper 3 Speaking
- Paper 4 Writing

All candidates sit the same four papers. Grades A* to G are available on these four papers for Cambridge IGCSE and grades 9 to 1 are available for Cambridge IGCSE (9–1).

Papers 1, 2 and 4 are written components. Paper 3 is a Speaking test. The Speaking test takes place before the written components. Your teacher will give you precise details about when this component will take place.

Components at a glance

This table summarises the key information about each examination. You can find details and advice on how to approach each component in the 'About each paper and component' sub-section below.

Component	Time and marks	Skills assessed	Details	Percentage of qualification
Paper 1	45 minutes 40 marks	Listening	You will listen to a number of recordings and answer multiple-choice and matching questions.	25%
Paper 2	1 hour 45 marks	Reading	You will read a number of texts and answer multiple-choice and matching questions as well as questions requiring short answers in German.	25%
Paper 3	About 10 minutes 40 marks	Speaking	You will complete one role play and conversations on two topics.	25%
Paper 4	1 hour 45 marks	Writing	You will complete one form-filling task, one directed writing task and one task in the format of an email/letter or article/blog.	25%

Remember, you must take all four papers. You should attempt all sections of the written papers.

About each component

Below are further details about each component.

Paper 1 Listening

Dictionaries are not allowed in the examination.

General points to note:

- There are multiple-choice and matching questions. Each question tests your understanding of a recorded text.
- The questions at the beginning are easier and gradually get more difficult as the examination progresses.
- The earlier texts that you will hear are shorter than the later texts.
- You will hear each recorded text twice.
- You should try to answer all of the questions.
- Questions can come from any topic listed in the five topic areas mentioned in Section 1.
- You are not required to write any answers in German. You will need to answer all questions by choosing the correct option(s).
- A thorough knowledge of the Vocabulary list is essential for this examination.

Description of questions

Exercise 1

Task	You will hear short texts and answer eight multiple-choice questions, each with four options.
Text types	Short monologues, e.g. announcements, phone messages, news items, or dialogues
Total marks	8

Exercise 2

Task	You will hear a monologue or dialogue containing factual information and answer six multiple-choice questions, each with four options.
Text types	Short monologues or dialogues
Total marks	6

Exercise 3

Task	You will hear a conversation and match the names of people, places, items or activities with the correct statements.
Text types	Informal conversation
Total marks	5

Exercise 4

Task	You will hear a dialogue (conversation, discussion or interview) or two shorter dialogues (each with a different person, on a common theme), and answer nine multiple-choice questions, each with three options.
Text types	Conversation, discussion or interview
Total marks	9

Exercise 5

Task	You will hear a dialogue (conversation, discussion or interview) and answer six multiple-choice questions, each with four options.
Text types	Conversation, discussion or interview
Total marks	6

Exercise 6

Task	You will hear a dialogue (conversation, discussion or interview). In each question there are five options and you must select the two options which are true.
Text types	Conversation, discussion or interview
Total marks	6

Paper 2 Reading

Dictionaries are not allowed in the examination.

General points to note:

- The questions at the beginning are easier and gradually get more difficult as the examination progresses.
- The earlier texts are shorter than the later texts.
- Each exercise contains multiple-choice questions, matching questions or questions with short answers in German.
- You should try to answer all of the questions.
- Questions can come from any topic listed in the five topic areas mentioned above in Section 1.
- When you answer questions in German, try not to copy large sections of the text as this will not show the examiner that you have understood precisely.
- When answering in German, your answer will be marked for communicating the correct message. If there is inaccuracy in the German it will be accepted provided that the message of your answer is clear.
- A thorough knowledge of the Vocabulary list is essential for this examination.

Description of question groups

Exercise 1

Task	You will match a series of short statements with the correct pictures.
Text types	Simple descriptions
Total marks	5

Exercise 2

Task	You will match a series of short notices or signs commonly found in public places with an explanatory statement. The texts are all taken from the same context.
Text types	Signs, notices, instructions, messages, advertisements
Total marks	5

Exercise 3

Task	You will answer multiple-choice questions, each with three options, on a short text.
Text types	Email, message, postcard or letter
Total marks	7

Exercise 4

Task	You will answer questions on a longer text which require short responses in German.
Text types	Email, message, letter or blog
Total marks	12

Exercise 5

Task	You will match a series of descriptions of the requirements, interests or skills of different people with the correct description of places, events, services or activities, etc. All texts are on a common theme.
Text types	Short descriptions, advertisements, etc.
Total marks	5

Exercise 6

Task	You will answer questions on a longer text which require short responses in German.
Text types	Articles, etc.
Total marks	11

Paper 3 Speaking

Dictionaries are not allowed in the examination.

General points to note:

- The Speaking test lasts for approximately 10 minutes.
- You will have 10 minutes of preparation time before the test. During this time you will be given the setting (scenario) of the role play task to think about. You are not allowed to make notes.
- In the test, there will be a brief warm-up of about 30 seconds. The warm-up is not assessed.
- You will have to complete one role play situation with five questions (approximately two minutes).
- The role plays will be on familiar topics, e.g. transactions in shops, using public transport, directions and ordering food and drinks.
- You will then respond to questions on two different conversation topics (approximately four minutes on each topic).
- The conversation topics will come from the areas listed in Section 1.
- The first conversation topic will come from area A (Everyday activities) or B (Personal and Social life).
- The second conversation topic will come from area C (The world around us), D (The world of work), or E (The international world).
- Each conversation topic will have questions which give you the opportunity to show that you can use past, present and future tenses.
- Each conversation topic will have questions for you to show that you can share views, opinions and your experiences.
- The role play and the topic conversations will be set in everyday, familiar contexts. They will all be based on the topics listed in Section 1 of this guide.
- A thorough knowledge of the Vocabulary list is essential for this examination.

Description of the Speaking test

Each Speaking test lasts approximately 10 minutes, and is structured as follows:

One role play
A warm-up section which is not assessed	approximately 30 seconds
One role play – candidates respond to five transactional questions to, for example, accomplish a task or obtain goods or services	approximately two minutes
Total role play marks (5 questions x 2 marks) = 10 marks

Two conversation topics
Two conversation topics – candidates respond to questions on each topic to share views, opinions and experiences	approximately four minutes for each conversation
Total marks for both conversations marked together = 30 marks (15 for Communication and 15 for Quality of Language)

Mark scheme for the Speaking test

Below is the mark scheme that your examiner will use to assess your Speaking test.

Role play (5 questions x 2 marks)

Each of the five role play questions is assessed using the mark scheme below:

2	The information is communicated. Language is appropriate to the situation and is accurate. Minor errors (adjective endings, use of prepositions, etc.) are allowed.
1	The information is partly communicated and/or the meaning is ambiguous. Errors impede communication.
0	No creditable response.

Topic conversations

Both the conversations are assessed together. There is one mark for Communication, out of 15 and one mark for Quality of Language (also out of 15). Total 30 marks.

Communication

Mark	Level	Descriptor
13–15	Very good	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Responds confidently to questions; may occasionally need repetition of words or phrases.</li> <li>• Communicates information which is consistently relevant to the questions.</li> <li>• Frequently develops ideas and opinions.</li> <li>• Justifies and explains some answers.</li> </ul>
10–12	Good	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Responds well to questions; requires occasional rephrasing.</li> <li>• Communicates information which is almost always relevant to the questions.</li> <li>• Sometimes develops ideas and opinions.</li> <li>• Gives reasons or explanations for some answers.</li> </ul>
7–9	Satisfactory	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Responds satisfactorily to questions; frequently requires rephrasing.</li> <li>• Communicates most of the required information; may occasionally give irrelevant information.</li> <li>• Conveys simple, straightforward opinions.</li> </ul>
4–6	Weak	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Has difficulty with many questions but still attempts an answer.</li> <li>• Communicates some simple information relevant to the questions.</li> </ul>
1–3	Poor	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Frequently has difficulty understanding the questions and has great difficulty in replying.</li> <li>• Communicates one or two basic pieces of information relevant to the questions.</li> </ul>
0		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• No creditable response.</li> </ul>

Quality of Language

Mark	Level	Descriptor
13–15	Very good	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Accurate use of a wide range of the structures listed in the syllabus with occasional errors in more complex language.</li> <li>• Accurate use of a wide range of vocabulary with occasional errors.</li> <li>• Very good pronunciation, fluency, intonation and expression; occasional mistakes or hesitation.</li> </ul>
10–12	Good	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Good use of a range of the structures listed in the syllabus, with some errors.</li> <li>• Good use of a range of vocabulary with some errors.</li> <li>• Good pronunciation and fluency despite some errors or hesitation; a good attempt at correct intonation and expression.</li> </ul>
7–9	Satisfactory	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Satisfactory use of some of the structures listed in the syllabus, with frequent errors.</li> <li>• Satisfactory use of vocabulary with frequent errors.</li> <li>• Satisfactory pronunciation and fluency despite frequent errors and hesitation; some attempt at intonation and expression.</li> </ul>
4–6	Weak	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Limited range of structures and vocabulary, rarely accurate and/or complete; frequent ambiguity.</li> <li>• Pronunciation can be understood with some effort; very noticeable hesitations and stilted delivery.</li> </ul>
1–3	Poor	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Very limited range of structures and vocabulary, almost always inaccurate.</li> <li>• Poor pronunciation, rarely comprehensible; many serious errors.</li> </ul>
0		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• No creditable response.</li> </ul>

Paper 4 Writing

Dictionaries are not allowed in the examination.

General points to note:

- You will need to answer three questions.
- The Writing paper starts with an easier, short question, Question 1, which you can answer with single words or phrases.
- For Question 2, you will need to write 80–90 words. Make sure that you complete all of the set questions.
- In Question 3, you will have the choice between two questions, 3(a) or 3(b). One will be an email or letter and the other will be an article or blog.
- For Question 3, you will need to write 130–140 words. Make sure that you complete all of the set questions.
- When you write, you should aim to be as accurate as possible and to use a variety of structures, tenses and vocabulary.
- You need to plan your time carefully.
- A thorough knowledge of the Vocabulary list is essential for this examination.

Description of questions

The Writing paper has a form-filling task, a directed writing task and an extended writing task.

Question 1

Task	You will fill in a form with single words or short phrases in response to a given context.
Total marks	5

Question 2

Task	You will complete a directed writing task in 80–90 words on a familiar, everyday topic.
Total marks	12

Question 3

Task	You will choose between two questions (an email/letter or an article/blog) and complete one of these in 130–140 words.
Total marks	28

More detail about the Writing paper can be found in Section 4 of this guide.

Section 3: What skills will be assessed

The areas of knowledge, understanding and skills that you will be assessed on are called assessment objectives (AOs).

You can think of your Cambridge IGCSE German course as having four main areas of skills and understanding:

- Listening
- Reading
- Speaking
- Writing

Here is an outline of the four skills that you should aim to have developed by the end of your course.

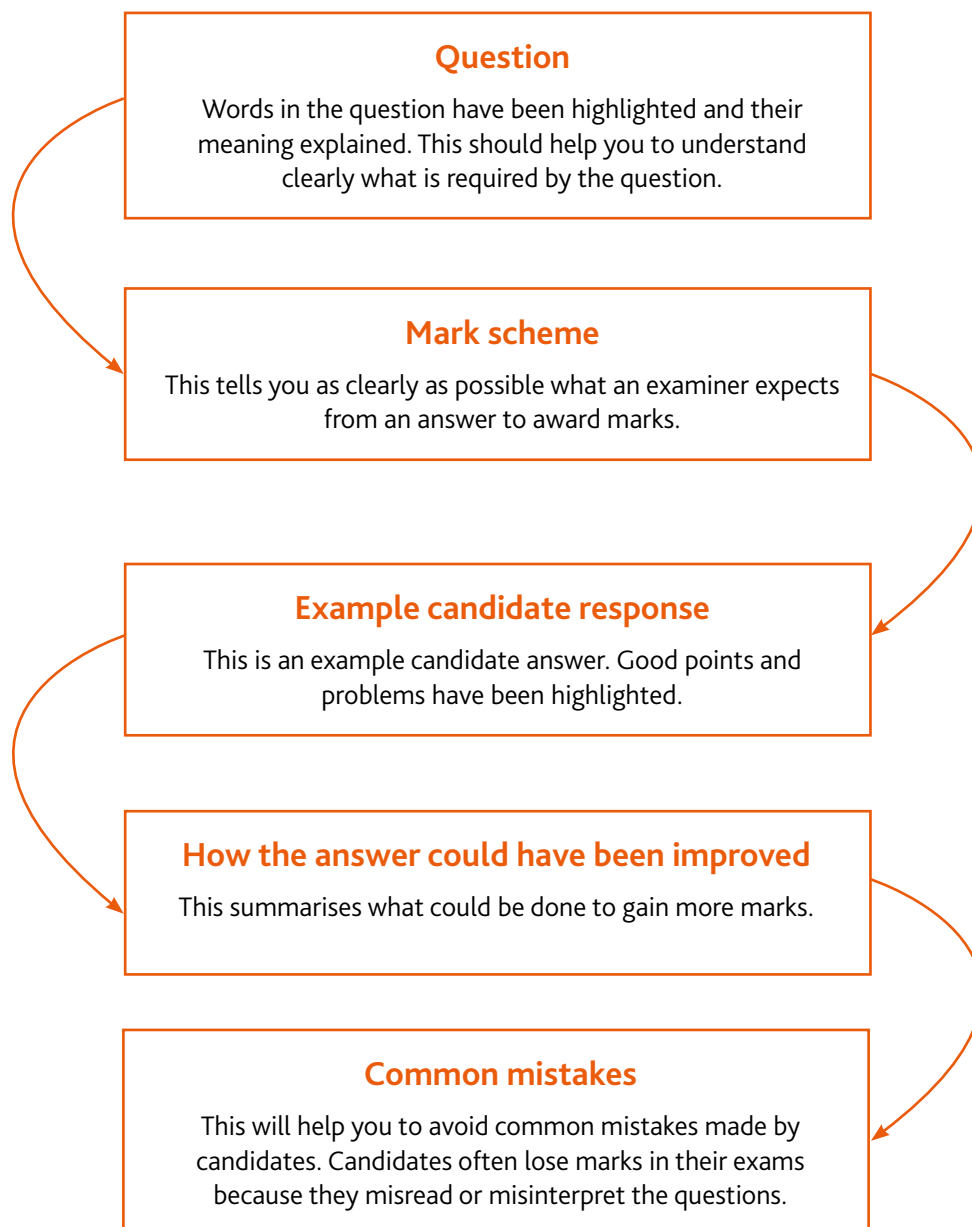

Assessment objectives (AO)	What does the AO mean?	What do you need to be able to do?
AO1 Listening	This is the part of the course where your ability to understand recordings of spoken German is assessed.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• understand the main points and key information in simple everyday material</li> <li>• understand clear speech on a range of familiar topics</li> <li>• understand the description of events and expression of ideas, opinions and attitudes in simple texts</li> <li>• identify and select relevant information in predictable texts.</li> </ul>
AO2 Reading	This is the part of the course where your ability to understand different kinds of written German will be assessed.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• understand the main points and key information in simple everyday material</li> <li>• understand authentic factual texts on a range of familiar topics</li> <li>• understand the description of events and expression of ideas, opinions and attitudes in simple texts</li> <li>• identify and select relevant information in predictable texts.</li> </ul>
AO3 Speaking	This is the part of the course where your ability to speak German will be assessed.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• communicate clearly and effectively in a range of predictable everyday situations</li> <li>• engage in conversations on familiar topics, expressing opinions and feelings</li> <li>• use a range of structures and vocabulary with reasonable accuracy</li> <li>• demonstrate some ability to maintain interaction</li> <li>• show some control of pronunciation and intonation.</li> </ul>
AO4 Writing	This is the part of the course where your ability to write in German will be assessed.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• communicate simple factual information clearly for everyday purposes</li> <li>• write simple phrases and sentences on a familiar topic</li> <li>• write simple connected texts describing events, experiences, opinions and hopes and ambitions</li> <li>• use a range of simple vocabulary and language structures reasonably accurately.</li> </ul>

Section 4: Example candidate response

This section takes you through an example question and answer from a Cambridge IGCSE German specimen paper. It will help you to see how to identify words within questions and to understand what is required in your response. A command word or phrase is the part of the question that tells you what you need to do with your knowledge. For example, you might need to describe something, give information, give an opinion and say why you have this opinion.

All information and advice in this section is specific to the example response being demonstrated. It should give you an idea of how your responses might be viewed by an examiner but it is not a list of what to do in all questions. In your own examination, you will need to pay careful attention to what each question is asking you to do.

This section is separated as follows:

Question 3(b)

Schreiben Sie 130–140 Wörter auf Deutsch.

Freizeit und Filme

Sie schreiben einen Artikel für die Schülerzeitung über das Thema: Freizeit und Filme.

- Erklären Sie, warum es wichtig ist, sich in der Freizeit zu entspannen.
- Erzählen Sie, was Sie in den letzten Monaten in Ihrer Freizeit gemacht haben.
- Erklären Sie, warum Kino und Filme heutzutage so populär sind.
- Beschreiben Sie einen Film, den Sie neulich gesehen haben.
- Sagen Sie, was für Freizeitaktivitäten Sie in Zukunft unternehmen möchten.

Erklären Sie. You will need to explain your views. You might consider explaining that free-time activities help to reduce stress, for example.

Erzählen Sie. You will need to give relevant examples. You should say what you did in recent months in your free-time, using the past tense, and you should link your points together.

Sagen Sie. You need to start by making a specific statement. This task requires a future tense/time-frame.

Erklären Sie. You will need to explain your views. You should consider a couple of reasons why films are popular, e.g. you can identify with the characters, you can relax when watching them, they are easy to download, etc.

Beschreiben Sie. You will need to describe a film you have watched recently. For example, you might consider which genre of film you watched. You might choose appropriate adjectives to describe the plot, characters, actors, special effects, theme, etc. This bullet point is written in the perfect tense, you should use a past tense (such as the perfect tense) to respond to this task.

Mark scheme

This is part of the mark scheme that shows the maximum marks that you can get for each question. The complete mark scheme can be found in the syllabus.

Bullet point completion (9–10 marks out of 10)

- Completes all tasks.
- Gives detailed information, opinions/ reactions and explanations.
- The writing is focused and wholly relevant.
- You need to show that you have answered all parts of the question.
- You should add as much relevant information as clearly as you can which refers to the set bullet points.
- You should make sure that in the bullet points asking for explanations and opinions that you add these in. Do not add something which is not needed to answer the bullet points.

Range (9–10 marks out of 10)

- Uses extended well-linked sentences frequently.
- Uses a wide range of simple and complex structures listed in the syllabus to produce sentences of varying length.
- Uses a wide range of vocabulary appropriate to the task(s).
- You need to extend your sentences by using connectors such as: und, aber, obwohl, da, weil, oder, etc.
- You need to vary how you start your sentences so your ideas link up, e.g. Außerdem (or: Danach) bin ich auch einkaufen gegangen.
- You should try to write not only simple sentences, but also more complex longer ones. Try using relative clauses and adverbial phrases to achieve this.
- You should show that you can use a wide range of nouns, adjectives and verbs which are linked to the topic area of the question.

Accuracy (7–8 marks out of 8)

- Accurate spelling and grammar; not necessarily faultless.
- Occasional errors in spelling and grammar do not impede communication.
- Your language should be highly accurate. However, note that your writing does not have to be 100% accurate in order to score in this mark range. You should check your work very carefully as you write it and allow time for checking again when you have finished.
- If you occasionally make a mistake in spelling or grammar then you will still be able to score in this mark range, provided that the mistake you have made does not prevent the reader from understanding what you have written.

Example candidate response

Wir haben heute viel stress ① in das leben ② und Sport ist sehr wichtig. Ich finde Sport gut für die Gesundheit.

Letzen ③ Monat habe ④ ich in den Park gegangen und ich ⑤ Fußball gespielt. Meine Schwester findet das gut, weil das ist ⑥ gut für die Gesundheit.

Ich mag Films ⑦ in Kinos ⑧ sehen, weil das lustig ist, aber es ist teuer. Filme sind populär, weil das lustig ist aber Filme zu Hause ist einfacher ⑨, weil man muss ⑩ nicht in ⑪ Kino gehen.

Ich habe „A Star is born“ gesehen ⑫ im Kino ⑬ weil das romantic ⑭ ist und ich mag romantic ⑮ Filme. Die schauspieler ⑯ war ⑰ toll und ich habe Popcorn gegessen.

In Zukunft möchte ich radfahren ⑱, weil das spaß ⑲ ist ⑳ aber ich habe nicht ein ㉑ Fahrrad ㉒ aber ich möchte schwimmen gehen ㉓ nächste ㉔ Wochenende.

Examiner comment

The writing is mostly relevant to the set tasks and includes some opinions and some extra supporting detail. All the tasks have been attempted. However, the explanations could have been clearer, e.g. explaining the popularity of films today. Additionally, not all details are relevant to the task. The language used is straightforward and appropriate to the tasks. There are some simple structures and a few attempts to link sentences with linking words (conjunctions) to create longer sentences. Some more complex structures are also attempted. The vocabulary used is very straightforward. The majority of the verbs are accurately conjugated and spelt. More care with word order and forms was needed and thorough checking. When there are inaccuracies, they do not often stop the messages in the writing being communicated effectively.

How the answer could have been improved

Overall this is typical of a response that would get a middle-range mark. The work would have scored well for completion of task but could have been improved by ensuring reasons were clear and relevant. A greater range and variety of language structures could have been attempted and the candidate should have checked the work more carefully to make sure that the use of capital letters for nouns and word order were correct.

Task completion

It is essential that all the set tasks are attempted and covered with relevant detail. If an answer is to score high marks for Task completion, it should include not just opinions but also reasons which explain these opinions and extra clear supporting detail. The writing is mostly relevant to the set tasks and there are some straightforward opinions. It is also a good feature that the candidate tries to go beyond just using verbs in the first person (ich) and also tries to say things about other people, weil man nicht ins Kino gehen muss, which are also relevant.

Point 1: The candidate has made a reasonable attempt to communicate this point by referring to life's stress. It would have been better if the candidate had explained that sport (or free-time activities in general) help to reduce stress, or help us to relax.

Point 2: The candidate communicates that he/she went to the park and played football last month. The sentences about Meine Schwester does not add anything useful. It would have been better for the candidate to go into more detail about what they did over the last few months. The details could have been linked (and therefore extended) with some interesting (time) connectors and sequencers, e.g. danach, außerdem...

Point 3: The candidate focuses too much on their own opinion of films and does not explain the popularity of the cinema/films to the wider public. Filme sind populär, weil das lustig ist does this to some extent but it would have been better to write something like Filme sind heutzutage populär, weil die Spezialeffekte oft sehr realistisch sind.

Point 4: The candidate communicates which film they have watched but misses out the idea of recently (neulich in the question). The description of the film is limited to mentioning the actor as being good and the film as being a romantic film.

Point 5: The candidate does successfully communicate their wish to go cycling in the future. However, the use of aber makes the meaning a little unclear in front of Ich möchte schwimmen. Still, the future tense has been used accurately and is linked to future time phrases.

Range

The candidate uses straightforward vocabulary which is appropriate to the task. Generally, the sentences are also straightforward but there could be a greater range and variety of structures.

There is some linking of sentences (even when the word order is not always accurate) and the candidate attempts to use weil and aber to link the sentences and phrases but nothing more sophisticated (e.g. denn, da, trotzdem, obwohl, und daher).

The vocabulary is straightforward. The response does have a few adjectives but these are sometimes incorrect (14).

A wider range of vocabulary would have helped to improve the answer. For example, the candidate could have included more adjectives to describe the film and their free-time activities in the past. Using more adjectives would also allow the use of more intensifiers, e.g. extrem, total, ziemlich.

Some verbs are used incorrectly or missed (4), (5). However, a wider range of verbs would have improved the answer and, as a result, would have communicated more details/ideas, e.g. Vorgestern wollte ich ins Theater gehen, um mich zu entspannen, aber ich habe mich leider (auf dem Hinweg) verfahren!

There is an attempt at the comparative, e.g. einfacher (9) (which is formed correctly but the sentence needs rephrasing to ..., aber Filme zu Hause anschauen ist einfacher, ...).

Accuracy

To score well here, the spelling of nouns, including the use of capital letters, and adjectives, should be accurate.

The use of capital letters for nouns is often incorrect, e.g. ① , ② , ⑬ , ⑱ .

The spelling of nouns is not always correct, e.g. Films ⑦ should also be Filme and Fahrad ⑳ should be Fahrrad.

Adjectives are attempted but are mostly inaccurate, e.g. romantic ⑭ , ⑮ and the spelling of letzten ③ is incorrect.

Adjective endings are attempted but not correct, e.g. ⑮ romantic Filme should be romantische Filme and nächste Wochenende should be nächstes Wochenende.

Die schauspieler ⑬ , ⑰ causes an issue for communication because it is not clear whether a single or plural form of actor is intended. If the singular form was intended, then the article should be Der ⑬ and the verb war ⑰ would be correct. If the plural was intended, then war should be waren ⑰ but the article Die would then be correct.

Negation is not always correct, e.g. nicht ein Fahrrad ⑳ should be kein Fahrrad. Use kein (and its inflected forms keine/keinen) to negate a noun preceded by ein/eine/einen.

Prepositions are sometimes used accurately but in das Leben ② needs to be im Leben. Also, in Kino ⑪ should be ins Kino.

Verbs are, on the whole, accurately spelt and conjugated but some verbs are inaccurately conjugated in the perfect tense, e.g. habe ④ ich in den Park gegangen und ich ⑤ Fußball gespielt should be bin ich in den Park gegangen und ich habe Fußball gespielt. Also, radfahren ⑱ should be Rad fahren.

There are attempts at using linking words to create complex sentences but the word order is not always correct, e.g. aber ich mochte schwimmen gehen nächste Wochenende ㉓ should be, aber ich möchte nächstes Wochenende schwimmen gehen in accordance with the time, manner, place rule for adverbial phrases. The past participle is not always in the correct position, e.g. Ich habe 'A Star is born' gesehen ⑫ im Kino ⑬ should be Ich habe 'A Star is born' im Kino gesehen.

Word order after subordinating connectors is not always correct, e.g. weil das ist ⑥ gut für die Gesundheit should be weil das gut für die Gesundheit ist.

Similarly, ⑩ , ⑪ needs to be rephrased, e.g. Filme sind populär, weil es Spaß macht, aber Filme zu Hause anschauen ist einfacher, weil man nicht ins Kino gehen muss.

The use of the comma before subordinating connectors was sometimes used accurately but not in ⑬ , ⑳ , ㉒ .

Common mistakes

These are some of the most common mistakes made by candidates when answering this type of question:

- Candidates do not read the question carefully.
- Candidates do not pay close attention to the question words and, as a consequence, their answers contain irrelevant material.
- Some candidates tend to ignore little words such as neulich which can change the meaning, i.e. they may describe an event several/many years ago.
- Candidates do not think carefully about the tenses required to answer each task.
- Candidates do not make a plan and sometimes write irrelevant material which is too general or which is not relevant to the set tasks. For example, if asked to describe a film you have watched recently, some candidates may include other details such as what they ate and drank in the cinema.
- Answers are often longer than the advised length of 130–140 words. (Very long answers tend to include inaccuracies and irrelevant material).
- Some sentences are short and are not joined by linking words. They could be made more complex by linking them better.
- Spellings are not always checked very carefully by candidates.
- Candidates frequently do not make the correct case agreements (for articles, nouns and adjectives).
- Common verbs are often incorrectly conjugated and the message can become confused.
- Nouns are often written without a capital letter.
- Candidates often forget to consider the right German word order (verb position).

General advice

In order to answer this kind of question well:

- Read both questions 3(a) and 3(b) and choose the one with the set tasks that you can say most about in German.
- Look out for little words like gern, nicht or neulich so you don't accidentally miss anything or even say something which contradicts the information in the bullet points.
- Circle the key words in the question to make sure you include all details. Perhaps tick off each detail on the question paper as you write about each one.
- Use the bullet points in the question to plan your answer. Put useful verbs next to each bullet point.
- Think about which tense you need to use to answer each bullet point. The verbs and time adverbs will help you. Write the tense next to the task to remind you.
- Think about who you are being asked to write about: yourself (ich) or yourself with a group of people (wir), one other person (er/sie) or a group of people (sie).
- Make a quick list of structures you want to include (e.g. um...zu + infinitive, nicht nur.....sondern auch...., wenn + conditional tense). Try to use these structures in your answer.
- Look to see if there is any word or short phrase in the question which you could include in your answer, e.g. 'zum Abendessen', which could form part of your sentence. Also, 'in Ihrer Freizeit' could be changed to 'in meiner Freizeit' in your answer.
- Plan your answer very carefully so that you try to write a short paragraph on each task/bullet. Leave a line between each paragraph.
- Think about what is being asked of you in the question. Ask yourself whether you are being asked to give facts, describe something, give an opinion or even a reason.
- If a task has two parts such as 'Say which food you prefer and explain why' make sure you include an explanation (why).
- When you have finished your answer, re-read your work carefully to check all the language for accuracy. Do several checks.
- Take great care with all spellings which you know you often have trouble with (e.g. letzte(s), nächste(s)).
- Always put in reasons for feelings and opinions and try to develop your answer by adding in supporting, relevant detail.
- Try to make longer sequences of language by joining sentences and phrases together. Learn a variety of joining words such as weil, denn, da, obwohl, trotzdem, deswegen, etc.
- Check the perfect tenses you use and do not miss out the correct part of the auxiliary verb (haben or sein).
- If you use two verbs together make sure the second one is in the infinitive and think about the word order (e.g. Ich darf am Wochenende ins Kino gehen).
- Check all the spellings of nouns and adjectives and make sure all nouns begin with a capital letter.
- Make sure you write as clearly and neatly as possible. If you want to cross anything out just put one line through the material you do not want the examiner to consider.

Section 5: Revision

This advice will help you to revise and prepare for the examinations. It is divided into general advice for all papers and more specific advice for each of the papers.

Use the tick boxes to keep a record of what you have done, what you plan to do or what you understand.

For more advice on revision, see the Cambridge Learner Revision Guide on our website.

General advice

Before the examinations

Find out when the examinations are and plan your revision so that you have time to revise. Create a revision timetable and divide it into sections to cover each topic. Start revising for your Speaking test before revising for the other papers as this test will take place before the written papers.

Find out how long each paper is, how many questions you have to answer and how many marks there are for each question.

Learn the meaning of the words used in questions and how to apply them to the information given. Look at past examination papers and specimen papers and highlight the words in the questions and check what they mean. Make sure that you learn common question words such as wer?, wo?, wie viel(e)?, warum?, wann?.

Make revision notes on each topic area. Try different styles of notes.

Work for short periods, then have a break. Revise small sections of the syllabus at a time.

Make lists of positive and negative opinions/feelings which you can use in lots of different situations.

Make sure that you learn the most common verbs thoroughly. Try writing out verbs in different tenses (e.g. past, present, future, conditional) by using spider diagrams and word maps.

Test yourself by writing out key vocabulary for each topic that you study. Divide the words to be learnt into short lists. Try using different coloured pens to highlight masculine, feminine and neuter words.

Try drawing an item or symbol for key vocabulary. Sometimes you can learn better using visual aids.

Learning at least all of the vocabulary on the Vocabulary list is essential. You can find it in the syllabus.

Learn how to express disappointment, how to be pleased about something, how to be in agreement with somebody, how to give an apology and how to give positive and negative opinions and preferences. These will be expressions that you can use in a variety of settings and topics.

Remember that you can't leave all of your revision until shortly before the exams. You need to revise 'little and often' throughout the course and revisit vocabulary and structures regularly.

Keep a checklist of words and structures which you know you often spell or use incorrectly. Look at the list frequently and tick the words when you know and can spell them.

Time yourself on past and specimen papers so that you become aware of how to plan your time during the real examination. Try to get as much practice as you can on past and specimen papers so that you know what to expect.

Look at mark schemes to help you to understand how the marks are awarded for each question. Refer to the syllabus.

How to learn/revise vocabulary and grammar

Start learning vocabulary very early. It is very difficult to memorise long lists of words just before the exam. You may find it easier to learn words by topic, rather than alphabetically, as this can help to reinforce meaning and connections between words.

During your course, make sure that you learn all new vocabulary and revise previously met vocabulary as often as you can.

It is probably best to focus on learning 20–25 words per day. Test yourself as you go.

Learning vocabulary can be done with a partner, but don't forget to do the memorising before you test each other. Agree on a section of vocabulary, spend 10 minutes in silence working on it and then test each other for 5 minutes.

You may like to annotate and use a highlighter on your vocabulary revision lists. Tick off the words that you know and concentrate on the ones that you still need to learn.

You may find it helpful to start your revision session by reviewing the words that you learnt last time. You could end your revision session by creating a vocabulary test for you to do at the start of your next session.

ANKI is an app for creating flashcards and testing yourself. You won't have time to input all the Cambridge IGCSE German vocabulary but you can download 'shared decks' (i.e. sets of flashcards) that other people have created. Quizlet is a similar app and has lots of sets of flashcards aimed at Cambridge IGCSE German level.

Make a list of words that are particularly relevant for talking about your own life and interests. For example, if you love playing basketball, look up and learn the key words that you might need in order to talk or write about this activity.

Sometimes a word just doesn't seem to stay in your memory, so try to say it in a sentence that means something to you. Giving it a context like this can help it to stay in your mind.

Visual associations work for some people. Picturing an image in your mind for a word or phrase may help you to remember its meaning and/or spelling. You can't do this for every word but it can help with some tricky ones.

A good tactic might be to learn adjectives in pairs of opposites – groß/klein, teuer/billig, glücklich/traurig, etc. This can work for adverbs too: nie/immer, gern/nicht gern, etc.

Mind maps work for many people. By making a mind map you are thinking about and processing the words, noticing connections and grouping them in ways that are meaningful to you. A mind map on Die Schule would have sub-sections on Die Fächer, Die Lehrer, Die Gebäude, Der Alltag, Meine Meinungen, etc. Try to find 10 words to go in each section.

Be aware of synonyms (two ways of saying the same thing), which are often key to answering questions in the Listening and Reading papers. Here are some other examples, but you could start your own list:

arbeitslos	hat keine Arbeit
einfach	leicht
dumm	doof
anrufen	telefonieren
sprechen	reden
Ferien	Urlaub

Start with the regular forms of verbs, then learn the irregulars. Test yourself. See if you can write out the full set of endings for a given verb and tense. Don't forget to check which endings have accents.

When learning, some people find that saying (or singing) the verbs out loud works well. Why not try it!

The Cambridge IGCSE German syllabus has a list of grammar points to revise. Look them up in your grammar notes or textbook and tick them when you know them.

During the examinations

Read the instructions carefully and try to answer all of the questions on the Listening and Reading papers. On the Writing paper answer Question 1, Question 2 and either Question 3(a) or 3(b).

Do not answer more questions than are needed as this will not gain you more marks.

Do not leave out questions or parts of questions. Remember, no answer means no mark.

Read each question carefully.

- Identify the key words in questions – you could underline or circle them.
- Identify other key vocabulary and perhaps underline or circle that too.
- Make sure that you identify the question words such as Wer?, Wo?, Wie viel(e)?, Warum?, Wann?, Wie?.

Read all parts of a question before starting your answer. Think carefully about what is needed for each part.

Only write what is relevant and needed to answer the question.

Remember to cross out clearly any incorrect answer that you do not want the examiner to consider.

Always start your answer on the given line and not above it or below it.

For multiple-choice and box-ticking questions make sure that you tick the correct number of boxes. If you tick too many you will not get the mark. If you tick too many boxes by mistake, cross out the incorrect one(s) clearly.

On the written papers, remember to write clearly in black or blue pen. Do not write first in pencil and then write over the top in pen. If an examiner can't see an answer clearly you will not get the mark.

Make sure that your writing is clear and easy to read.

Check your spelling and grammar very carefully.

Paper 1 Listening advice

Remember that there are six types of exercise in this paper. The recordings that you hear at the beginning of the paper are shorter than the later recordings. The questions gradually get more difficult.

When you read the instructions for each exercise, think about the topic area, the setting, who is talking and about what. Think about the kind of vocabulary that you are likely to hear.

Think about the kind of information that you are being asked for in the questions. This will give you an indication of what to listen out for.

Follow the instructions carefully and make sure that you know how many answers to choose. Most questions will require you to indicate just one answer but on the last exercise, you will need to choose two answers for each question.

Try to answer all of the questions. If you are unsure, make an intelligent deduction.

The texts may contain words that you don't know, but you should be able to work out the meaning of them from the context or other clues given in the texts.

In questions which are based on longer recorded texts, do not decide on an answer too quickly before the speaker has finished what s/he is saying.

If you do miss an answer, try not to panic. Instead, continue concentrating and focus on the next part of the recording and the next question so that you do not lose your place.

Paper 2 Reading advice

Start from the beginning of the paper and work your way through. The texts that you read will get longer as the examination progresses.

The later exercises have longer texts and more complex questioning. Make sure that you allow enough time to answer them.

For multiple-choice questions, choose one option only.

In questions requiring you to answer in German, keep your answers as brief as possible. Many of the questions will not require you to answer in a full sentence.

Select the correct material carefully and do not add extra detail which does not answer the question as this may mean that you do not get the mark because you have not shown that you have understood the text and/or the question.

Answers in German will be marked for communication rather than for accuracy. Inaccuracies will be tolerated by the examiner provided that the message of your answer is clear.

The matching exercise requires careful study. You may need to check two or three details within each description in order to identify the correct answer.

If the reading passage has a title, make sure that you read it as it will give you a clue about the content of the text.

The texts may contain words that you don't know, but you should be able to work out the meaning of them from the context or other clues given in the texts.

Check that you know and understand the question words (e.g. Wie?, Wo?, Wer?, Wann?, Warum?).

If two marks are allocated to a question, remember to give two answers, one on each answer line.

Try to answer all of the questions. If you are unsure, make an intelligent deduction.

Make sure that you allow enough time to check all of your answers carefully.

Paper 3 Speaking advice

Learn all new structures and points of grammar carefully and practise using them when you are speaking.

Ask your teacher if s/he can make a recording of useful questions which you could try to answer at home.

It is essential that you learn all question words (such as Wer?, Wo?, Wie viel(e)?, Warum?, Wann?, Um wie viel Uhr? and Wie?) carefully so that you know what you are being asked by the examiner.

In the 10 minutes of preparation time before your speaking test, think about where the role play takes place and the vocabulary and phrases in the target language that might be useful.

You may find it helpful to

- think about questions you might be asked in the role play and plan some answers
- think about your own experiences and prepare what you could say
- if you don't have relevant experience, use your imagination to prepare what you could say.

Try to stay calm – we want you to do well and the test gives you the opportunity to demonstrate what you know.

Learn how to ask for things to be repeated or to indicate that you have not heard something.

Practise answering questions about yourself or people/places that you know. Be aware of how you pronounce the words and how quickly you talk. Practise answering questions about a topic of interest, focusing on the accuracy of your grammar and your sentences and giving as much detail as possible. It can be helpful to record what you say so that you can listen to your answers again and identify where you could improve.

For each of the two conversation topics that you are asked questions on during your Speaking test, try to give answers which are as detailed as possible. The aim is to answer the questions with a short paragraph of speech. Extend your answers by adding examples and extra details (when, where, who with, why, etc.). Give your opinions and support them with reasons and explanations.

If your teacher/examiner wants you to try to give a longer answer, they may say something like Erzähl mir bitte etwas mehr or Kannst du noch mehr darüber sagen? (Can you tell me a bit more about that?). If your teacher/examiner asks you to elaborate, try to do so.

Try to practise speaking German as much as possible. Revising with a friend can help.

Speak clearly and try not to rush.

Paper 4 Writing advice

Learn all new structures and points of grammar carefully and practise using them in your writing.

Learn how to spell and write accurately expressions for ideas such as how to express disappointment, how to be pleased about something, how to be in agreement with somebody, how to give an apology and how to give positive and negative opinions and preferences.

Some learners find it helpful to use the AVOCADO mnemonic to improve their writing skills. It can be a useful reminder when tackling Questions 2 and 3.

A = Adjectives (include some, and make them agree)

V = Verbs (check them and remember to use a variety)

O = Opinions (know and use your opinion phrases, e.g. Ich denke, dass..., Meiner Meinung nach...)

C = Connectives (linking words/phrases, e.g. aber, weil, da, wenn)

A = Adverbs (include some, e.g. manchmal, ab und zu, nicht oft)

D = Description (when describing something that happened in the past, this is a chance to use a variety of past tenses)

O = Originality (try to avoid repeating yourself)

Remember important word order rules, e.g. Time, Manner, Place.

Learn a set of more complex sentence structures to use when writing. Comparatives and superlatives can be good ways of expressing opinions. Aim to include subordinate connectives, linking words which kick the verb to the end, such as weil, dass or obwohl.

Practise writing about a person who you know well. Then re-write your description, making any simple sentences into more detailed ones.

Work out which grammar mistakes you make when writing. Practise writing on different topics, making sure that you review your work and correct your grammar mistakes afterwards.

Make sure that you practise writing answers to past and specimen questions so that you know how long to spend on each question.

When reading through a question paper for the first time, you may find it helpful to underline or circle the question words so that you know precisely what you are being asked.

In Question 2, think about which tense each bullet point is asking you to write in.

In Question 3, think about whether each task is asking you to write about things in the past, present or future.

In Questions 2 and 3, try to include a good range of structures which will show that you can use a wide variety of language.

In the exam, plan your time carefully. You may find it useful to write a brief plan for each question that you answer. In your plan, you may wish to write down relevant key verbs in the appropriate tenses. Draw a line through your plan after you have finished with it.

Try to stick to the word limits in Questions 2 and 3. What you write must be relevant to the set bullet points. Irrelevant material will not gain you credit.

Make sure that you allow enough time to check all of your answers carefully. Ensure that you have covered all of the set tasks. You could then check that the verbs that you have written are correct, and you could also check other things such as adverbs and the spelling and agreement of adjectives and nouns.

Revision checklists

In the next part of this guide we have provided some revision checklists. These include information from the syllabus that you should revise. They don't contain all the detailed knowledge you need to know, just an overview. For more detail see the syllabus and talk to your teacher.

The table headings are explained below:

Question	You should be able to	R	A	G	Comments
For each of the examination papers for Listening, Reading, Speaking and Writing, there is a list of questions.	These are the key skills and understanding you need to answer these types of questions.	You can use the tick boxes to show when you have revised an item and how confident you feel about it. R = RED means you are really unsure and lack confidence; you might want to focus your revision here and possibly talk to your teacher for help A = AMBER means you are reasonably confident but need some extra practice G = GREEN means you are very confident. As your revision progresses, you can concentrate on the RED and AMBER items in order to turn them into GREEN items. You might find it helpful to highlight each topic in red, orange or green to help you prioritise.			You can: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>add further information of your own, such as useful structures/points of grammar to check, refer to the list of grammar and structures in the syllabus</li> <li>add key vocabulary areas and phrases to check from the Topic Areas and Vocabulary list in the syllabus</li> <li>pinpoint areas of difficulty you need to check further with your teacher or textbooks</li> <li>include reference to useful websites and other resources</li> </ul>

Note: the tables below cannot contain absolutely everything you need to know, but it does use examples wherever it can.

Paper 1 Listening

Question	You should be able to	R	A	G	Comments
Exercises 1 and 2	Understand the main points and key information in 8 short recordings, and one short recording (a monologue or dialogue), dealing with everyday needs, e.g. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Simple transactions in shops</li> <li>• Simple directions or instructions</li> </ul> Understand (straightforward) factual information and (simple) ideas from a range of sources, e.g. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Announcements</li> <li>• Phone messages</li> <li>• Dialogues</li> </ul> Understand material on a range of familiar topics, e.g. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Leisure activities</li> <li>• Tourist information</li> <li>• Accommodation</li> <li>• Transport</li> <li>• Weather</li> <li>• Meals</li> <li>• Prices</li> </ul> Identify and select main points and specific information on the above kinds of topics.
Exercises 3 and 4	Understand (straightforward) factual information and (simple) ideas and opinions in a short informal conversation and a dialogue or two shorter dialogues on a range of familiar, everyday topics, e.g. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Personal and family information</li> <li>• Food and drink</li> <li>• Travel and transport</li> <li>• Shopping</li> <li>• Local area</li> </ul>

Exercises 5 and 6	Understand descriptions of events, opinions, emotions and ambitions in two longer conversations, discussions or interviews. Identify and select specific information, (factual information) and details. Identify and select main points, themes, opinions, ideas, emotions and attitudes in predictable texts. Work out the meaning of occasional unknown words and expressions from the context.

Paper 2 Reading

Question	You should be able to	R	A	G	Comments
Exercises 1 and 2	Understand the main points and key information in short simple texts, e.g. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• signs and notices in public places (restaurants, and bus/railway stations and airports)</li> </ul> Identify specific information and details in short simple descriptions and texts, e.g. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Adverts</li> <li>• Brochures</li> <li>• Timetables</li> <li>• Instructions</li> <li>• Messages</li> </ul>
Exercises 3 and 4	Understand two short factual texts (e.g. emails, messages, blogs, or letters) on a range of familiar, everyday topics and situations, e.g. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Personal and family information</li> <li>• Travel and transport</li> <li>• Food and drink</li> <li>• Shopping</li> <li>• Local area</li> <li>• Employment</li> <li>• School</li> <li>• Leisure activities</li> <li>• Countries and nationalities</li> <li>• Languages</li> <li>• Celebrations</li> <li>• Customs</li> </ul> These two texts will be longer than in exercises 1 and 2. Identify and select main points, specific information and details in simple predictable texts.

Paper 3 Speaking

Question	You should be able to	R	A	G	Comments
Role play	Take part in one short role play situation with five transactional tasks, e.g. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• To obtain goods or services</li> <li>• To give information</li> <li>• To arrange to go out</li> <li>• To change a hotel room</li> </ul> Communicate on familiar topics to meet simple needs, e.g. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Food and drink</li> <li>• Shopping</li> <li>• Transport</li> <li>• Directions</li> <li>• Tourist requirements</li> </ul> Communicate using a range of structures, tenses (past, present and future) and vocabulary relevant to the given situation. Pronounce clearly so that the message is clear.
Topic conversations 1 and 2	Take part in two unprepared conversations on familiar topics, e.g. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Family</li> <li>• Friends</li> <li>• Life at home</li> <li>• Clothes</li> <li>• Food and drink</li> <li>• Travel and transport</li> <li>• Languages</li> <li>• Celebrations</li> <li>• Customs</li> <li>• Technology</li> <li>• Hobbies and interests</li> <li>• Education</li> <li>• Work</li> </ul> (The maximum time is four minutes for each conversation).

	Describe past events and experiences, opinions, hopes and ambitions. Give brief reasons for opinions and plans. Communicate with reasonable accuracy, using a range of structures, tenses (past, present and future) and vocabulary relevant to the given situation. Link shorter sentences into one connected sequence of points. Use ways to keep the conversation going (e.g. ask for repetitions or if more detail is required). Pronounce and use speech patterns clearly so that the message is clear. Say as much as you can in response to each question and develop your answers.

Paper 4 Writing

Question	You should be able to	R	A	G	Comments
Question 1	Communicate simple factual information by filling in a form providing simple details on a given topic, e.g. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Personal details</li> <li>• Jobs</li> <li>• Hobbies</li> </ul>

<https://deutschlernerblog.de/deutsch-a2-deutsch-lernen-a2-deutschkurs-a2/>

<https://deutschlernerblog.de/deutsch-b1-deutsch-lernen-b1-deutschkurs-b1>

This is a useful revision site which allows you to practise your listening skills (choose your level, listen to the recordings and complete the online exercises and tests).

www.kika.de/schau-in-meine-welt/index.html

This website contains useful video clips to help you practise your listening skills. The 'Steckbriefe' can be used as reading texts and the questions can be practised in conversations.

www.deutschakademie.de/online-deutschkurs/choosereference.php

Online grammar activities (choose your level and grammar topic). Grammatical terms are in German.

www.dw.com/en/learn-german/level-a1/s-13227

Select your level, e.g. A1, A2, B1. Select a range of activities, e.g. audio stories, dramas, grammar activities. Some videos show the text on the screen for extra reading practice.
